DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claim 7,14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 7 and 14, the term said additional charges lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 15-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims are directed to a data signal. Data signals are not concrete nor tangible and therefor are not patentable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3624

4. Claims 1-14 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Paymybills.com, Press Release.

The reference teaches that PayMyBills.com is a personal bill management service enabling end users to securely view and pay all their bills online. PayMyBills.com features include a simple, paperless internet based bill paying solution. Inherent in the Paymybills.com system are the features of claim 1,3-6. While, the language of claim 2 and 7 are optional, the examiner takes official notice paymbills.com included an additional charge, a service fee, with each months bills.

Respectfully,

By,
